

BIOGRAPHY:

Peter E. Palmer
Facilitator (Bilingual)
ppalmer@ngenperformance.com
Tel: 416-362-7564

As an associate with n-gen (www.ngenperformance.com), Peter E. Palmer brings a vast experience in coaching and training clients to achieve breakthrough business results. His proven and workable strategies, taken from over 20 years of coaching Fortune 500 and Quebec 100 companies are easily implemented by all levels of management to engage and advance individuals and organizations.

His experience in the Pharmaceutical, Aerospace, High Tech and Service sectors are varied and include work with Canada's industry leading firms. He has worked in executive boardrooms of some of Canada's top corporations assisting their leaders to formulate strategies to connect, motivate and engage a multigenerational workforce. As a highly engaging speaker, Peter delivers keynote presentations and training programs that help clients achieve business success.

He is a graduate of Hautes Etudes Commerciales in Marketing and also earned a diploma in French Radio & Television Broadcasting. His practical "non academic" approach, has made Peter a popular guest faculty member and workshop leader for the last 10 years at the McGill International Executive Institute. He has also: lectured to MBA classes at H.E.C.; been a featured speaker at French Quebec Universities; and is a long standing keynote speaker at Concordia and the John Molson School of Business.